POTHOLES

by Gus Kaikkonen

Directed by Justin Greger

Director's Note:

If you've ever been nervous or scared to talk to girls, this play is for you. If you've been afraid of talking to strangers, this play is for you. As a child talking to strangers was dangerous; as an adult it is essential. This is not a romantic comedy, this is life.

HE'S HAVING A BABY

By Fred Carmichael

Directed by Libby Waltner

Director's Note:

He's Having A Baby is a play that I discovered in high school. I love it because it reverses the roles of men and women. Being very against gender appropriate roles and their stereotypes, it caught my attention right away. The humor involved in this one-act was simply a bonus to something with deeper content than what most people would think. Watching it come to life has been an amazing experience, and the cast that I had is a huge part of that. I hope you enjoy watching it as much as I have enjoyed directing it.
