

Liberal Education and Support Course Requirements

Must total 60 credit hours

- First Year Experience or equivalent
- College Writing I & II
- Speech or Interpersonal Communication
- General Psychology
- Developmental Psychology
- Introduction to Sociology or Sociology of Families
- humanities – two courses from two separate disciplines
- Lifetime Fitness or elective
- Principles of Nutrition
- College Algebra
- Elementary Statistics
- Introductory Chemistry or General Chemistry I
- Anatomy & Physiology
- Pathophysiology
- Microbiology
- general electives

YEAR 1

Fall semester – 7 credit hours

- Holistic Assessment – 3
- Nursing Theories and Professional Practice (eight-week course) – 2
- Healthcare Ethics (eight-week course) – 2
- liberal ed/support courses if still needed

Hesston College grants advanced placement credit to articulating LPNs for Nursing Foundations I (8 hours)

Spring semester – 17 credit hours

- Foundations II and Maternal/Child Nursing – 8
- Healthcare Systems, Policy and Finance (eight-week course) – 2
- Evidence-Based Practice (eight-week course) – 2
- Clinical Pharmacology I (transfer credit for Nurs 331 is awarded by competency testing) – 2
- Biblical Literature – 3

YEAR 2

Fall semester – 15 credit hours

- Acute Care Nursing I (Medical/Surgical, Mental Health and Management) – 9
- Population-Based Nursing – 4
- Clinical Pharmacology II – 2

Spring semester – 17 credit hours

- Acute Care Nursing II (Medical Surgical and Complex Care) – 9
- Healthcare Informatics, Quality and Safety* – 2
- Nursing Management and Leadership* – 3
- Integration Seminar* – 3